Mission

Mount Vernon School of Music strives to spread the transformative power of music by providing the highest quality music educational experiences, to all in the community who seek it. Music education should be made available to all children!

Core Value

At MVSM, our belief is that music changes lives, refocus our youth, open pathways and create communities. We invite everyone to share our passion for music, regardless of age, ability, ethnicity, economic status or religion.

Program

MVSM offers group and private instruction, whether you are interested in guitar, piano or cultivating your voice, we have acclaimed instructors to help you achieve your desired goal.

“Bringing my daughter to MVSM was one of the best things I’ve done! Under her patient, nurturing teacher her love of music has grown!”

Group Lessons:

Piano, Voice, Drums, Guitar
Violin and Bells

Group lessons provide quality instruction at an affordable rate. The group setting consist of (5-8) students. Group lessons are offered three times per week.

Private Lessons:

Drums/Percussion,
Guitar (Acoustic/Bass/Electric),
Piano, Violin and Voice

Private lessons allows the student one-on-one individual instruction developing technical skills and artistic ability.

Classes for ages 4 to Adults

Vocal Lessons

Find your voice and learn to blend it with the group session. You will develop basic ear training and performance skills in an environment that emphasizes cooperation, teamwork and fun! To hone your voice try our private lessons.
